About this course

You may not have been updated on physical health since entering your specialty, yet it has a significant factor for many of your patients with psychiatric disorders. This conference will provide you with an update in the diagnosis and management of relevant medical illnesses and the physical health implications that have an impact on the management of psychiatric disorders.

Course Topics

The conference will update delegates on the following topics: Asthma, COPD, Pain Management, Analgesia, Hypertension, Diabetes, Parkinson's Disease and Strokes.

About our speaker(s)

The day will include multiple expert speakers in their speciality.
